Annual Report of Grievances Redressal Cell, Majuli College, Kamalabari, 2020-2021

With a view to deal with students' grievances and to promote a suitable academic atmosphere in the college among students, the Grievances Redressal cell has been working from its inception. It is a matter of immense pleasure for the college family that during the academic session 2020-21, no grievance related incidents took place in the college premise. Also, no grievances regarding the Internal Assessment process has been recorded during the year.

On 3rd March, 2021, the first sitting of the cell was held and the cell discussed about various mechanisms to be implemented on Grievances of the students in the presence of the honorable Coordinator, Mr. Haren Saikia, Joint Coordinator Bipul Rajkhowa and the members namely Indira Borah, Dr. Rupjyoti Borah, Dr. Prafulla Borah, Bijoy Timung, Akash Pegu (Students' Representative), Niharika Saikia (Students' Representative).

The cell suggested the mentors as well as the teachers of various departments to make the students aware about the cell and to report their problems. The cell also hanged posters, banners (mentioning the phone numbers of the members) in different parts of the college, so that, the students can meet/contact the members of the cell and record their grievances easily.

The cell also took resolutions on the following aspects:

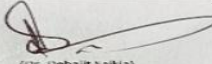

- (1) Forms with coherent and identical columns to record every detail of grievances faced by the students will be provided to them from this session.
- (2) Grievances will be redressed within a maximum period of 2 weeks taking recourse to a transparent and prompt mechanism.

Anti-Ragging Cell, 2017-18

Two executive meetings of the anti-ragging cell of Majuli College were held on 9th June 2017 and 4th August 2017. The following members were present in both the sittings:

1. Bipul Rajkhowa
2. Dr. Rupjyoti Borah
3. Dulal Hazarika
4. Apurbajyoti Hazarika
5. Kartik nath
6. Nishajyoti Payeng
7. Dibyajyoti Bordoloi

In the first meeting, all the members came to a consensus that the incidents of ragging in the college premise are relatively very less. But, at the same time, all the members emphasized to make it entirely naught in the forthcoming session. Mr. Apurbajyoti Hazarika, coordinator of IQAC, opined that removing ragging from the campus should be a motto of the college and responsibility of it fell on all the stakeholders of the college. He also requested everyone to extend their cooperation for make the institution ragging-free. The coordinator of the cell, Mr. Bipul Rajkhowa, appealed all the members of the cell to keep an eye on the students' affairs especially during the beginning of the session.

The next sitting, which was held on August 4, 2017, was in fact a follow up one. The members expressed their satisfaction for not allowing any bad element to exercise on the evil motif such as ragging in the campus. The sitting unanimously resolved to work towards maintaining such an environment in future as well. Dr. Rupjyoti Borah, a member of the cell, said that the endeavor of the cell achieved its goal in the year due to the cordial assistance offered by the college family.

ANNUAL REPORT
2018-19

The Anti Ragging Cell met just before the commencement of the new academic session to discuss fresh strategies to prevent ragging in the college. The sitting was attended by the following members:

1. Mr. Bipul Rajkhowa, Assistant Professor
2. Mr. Amriteswar Chutia, Associate Professor
3. Mrs. Indira Borah, Assistant Professor
4. Mr. Dulal Hazarika, Assistant Professor
5. Mr. Kartik Nath, Assistant Professor
6. Shri Sudipta Dutta, Students' Representative
7. Miss Kuki Borah, Students' Representative

The sitting resolved to carry on the previous strategies and stressed the importance of playing a proactive role by the teachers and other stakeholders of the college to curb the menace. The student representative assured the house of all possible help from the Students' Union to prevent the newcomers from being victims of ragging.

The second sitting attended by the same members and held on 3rd August, 2019 discussed a grievance furnished by Juri Dutta, HS 1st Year student. As reported this was a case of embarrassing grilling by some senior students. The member summoned the girl and prevailed upon her to identify the accused students. On enquiry, it was found that it was not very serious. The meeting succeeded in resolving the issue through mutual exchange of views. The accused and their guardians were summoned by the Principal and were intimated about the punishment as per SC verdict.

The members of anti-ragging cell generally meet twice during the session. But during this session, only one meeting was held on 3rd August, 2019 agreed on ensuring a healthy academic environment in the college by preventing any untoward incident of ragging. They discussed the clauses of UGC circular on ragging, 2009 and stressed the importance of intimating the students about the various punishments of ragging through notification. The sitting was attended by the following members.

1. Amriteshwar Chutia
2. Bipul Rajkhowa
3. Indira Bora
4. Dulal Hazarika
5. Kartik Nath
6. Sudipta Dutta (GS)
7. Kuki Borah (Student's Representative)

"It is unanimously resolved that as an immediate measure toward curbing ragging in the college, the Principal be requested to notify the students about the possible punishments for ragging as per UGC circular, 2009. Further, it is resolved that the admission forms contain affidavits from both students and guardians about non-indulgence in ragging and liability to any punishments as the authority deems proper."

Due to the sudden occurrence of Covid pandemic, the next meeting could not be held during this session.

The above mentioned four students of H.S. 2nd Year violated the discipline during the journey of field study at Bogibet, Dimaaji. They ignored the advice of the teachers/guides. Mr. Prasanta Sarma, HOD Geography Deptt., Dr. Jaya Kalita-Gogoi informed the situation to the Committee instead of taking action themselves.
 The Committee met the students, talked details and solved the issue peacefully. The students were restricted for ten days from the college and took written oath not to involve in such anti-social activities during their period.
