❖ About the FDP-

This FDP is conceptualized and designed to enrich the research powers with novel research strategies in engineering. The programme addressed issues in research methods and data analytics like selection of appropriate analytical tools, right software and interpretation of outputs. The program focused on broad range of techniques available in research methods and data analytics for academicians, practitioners and researchers from inter disciplinary domains.

❖ Program Objectives-

- To provide an overview of research methodology.
- To help faculty and research scholar to define research Problem.
- To insight different research design.
- To guide researchers in writing research paper.

The National Institute of Technology (NIT) Meghalaya is one among the 31 NITs in India established in 2010 under the NIT Act 2007 (Amended 2012) of the Parliament of India as Institutes of National Importance with full funding support from the Ministry of Education, Government of India. The Institute is currently operating from its temporary campus in Shillong. It offers B. Tech, M. Tech, M.Sc. and PhD programmes. The Institute has been ranked in all editions of the National Institute Ranking Framework (NIRF) and was ranked 59 in the Engineering category, NIRF 2021. For more details, visit <http://nitm.ac.in>

About the Department of Mathematics

The Department of Mathematics started functioning in June 2012. Currently the department offers 2-year M.Sc. and PhD programmes. In addition, the department plays an important role as a supporting department to various B.Tech and M.Tech programmes of the institute. The main objective of the department is to attract students of science and engineering, and to provide for them academically coherent programmes, with courses that range from the fundamental to the advanced. Also to provide students with friendly pastoral and academic support which will help them develop their capabilities in an environment where both independent study and interaction with staff and fellow students are encouraged.
